Stonecutters Ridge Golf Club is Sydney's first Greg Norman designed golf course.

Stonecutters is conveniently placed for easy access from the M7, M2 and M4 and 45 minutes from the Sydney CBD. Stonecutters Ridge Golf Club was the home of the NSW Open in 2014, 2015 and 2016 and features ample parking, practice range, practice putting greens and nets, as well as tennis courts, architecturally designed clubhouse with brasserie and cafe, bars, function and conference facilities, TAB, Keno and gaming areas.

The Greg Norman signature championship course is framed by the natural meanderings of Eastern Creek and surrounding bushland with three distinct landscaping themes to provide a range of sensory experiences. Intimidating bunkers, challenging greens and impressive water features are sure to test. Par 71, 6248m.
